

Senate Resolution 14

By: Senators Smith of the 52nd, Hill of the 32nd, Mullis of the 53rd, Hudgens of the 47th, Tolleson of the 20th and others

A RESOLUTION

1 Expressing the sympathy for the victims of the powerful earthquake and devastating tsunami
2 that struck Bangladesh, Burma, India, Indonesia, Kenya, Malaysia, the Maldives, the 3 Seychelles, Somalia, Sri Lanka, Tanzania, Thailand, and other areas of Southeast Asia, South
4 Asia, and Africa on December 26, 2004; and for other purposes.

5 WHEREAS on December 26, 2004, a tremendous earthquake, registered at 9.0 on the Richter
6 scale and centered 100 miles off the coast of Northern Sumatra, Indonesia, triggered a deadly 7 tsunami that swept through the Indian Ocean, devastating cities, towns, and communities and 8 killing or injuring persons in Southeast Asia and South Asia, the island nations of the region, 9 and East Africa; and

10 WHEREAS, as a result of the earthquake and ensuing tsunami, more than 150,000 people 11 have lost their lives to date and tens of thousands of people are injured or missing; and

12 WHEREAS, the victims also include thousands of persons who were visiting the region
13 when the tsunami hit, including significant numbers from Europe and North and South 14 America; and

15 WHEREAS, millions of people throughout Southeast Asia and South Asia have been left 16 without food, shelter, or clean water and now face deadly diseases such as cholera, dengue 17 fever, dysentery, malaria, and typhoid; and

18 WHEREAS, thousands of children have been killed or injured by this disaster and thousands 19 of children have been separated from their families or orphaned and are in need of 20 reunification or adoption; and

21 WHEREAS, whole coastal communities and cities throughout the region were obliterated, 22 and recovery, reconstruction, and clean-up of the devastated areas likely will take years and 23 billions of dollars; and

1 WHEREAS, the United States government and other countries have joined together to 2 provide relief funds, equipment, personnel, and supplies to aid this region and have been 3 joined with other nongovernmental agencies to attempt to alleviate the suffering and 4 reconstruct and clean up this region; and

5 WHEREAS, much more funding and volunteers are needed to assist in this effort.

6 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
7 express their heartfelt sympathy for the victims of the powerful earthquake and devastating 8 tsunami that struck cities, towns, and communities throughout Southeast Asia, South Asia, 9 and East Africa on December 26, 2004, and convey their most sincere condolences to the 10 families, communities, and governments of the more than 150,000 people that lost their lives 11 in this terrible natural disaster.

12 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of this body express their gratitude and 13 respect for the courageous and committed work of all aid and relief personnel, including 14 United States military personnel, who are saving lives and providing relief assistance in the 15 devastated areas of the region and commend the ongoing international relief effort that 16 includes the work of individual countries, numerous international organizations, and various 17 relief and other nongovernmental entities.

18 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of this body encourage private donations 19 and assistance from Georgia citizens, charitable organizations, religious groups, and 20 corporations that routinely provide generous and significant amounts of aid, support, and 21 volunteers to assist in the relief of this region that has been so terribly impacted by the 22 powerful earthquake and the devastating tsunami.
